Dear Parents,

I hope that this letter finds you and your family well and that you had a good half term.

Return to school for all pupils

This is a very quick update in response to the Prime Minister's announcement yesterday stating that all children will return to school on March 8th.

We are very much looking forward to having all of our wonderful children back in school and having our Ilsham family back together again. Over the next week, we will be carefully planning the children's transition back into school so that they rebuild friendships, re-establish relationships with their teacher and other adults and settle them back into routines ready to learn. Very early next week, I will update you further on the arrangements for your child's return to school.

Parent Consultations

As a school staff, we are so appreciative of the tremendous effort that you have put into supporting your child with their learning especially at home and we thank you for this. On the weeks beginning March 15th and 22nd, we will be holding virtual parent consultations which will provide a useful opportunity for parents to discuss with their child's teacher how their child has coped with remote learning and the support they will need as they make the transition back into school if they have been learning at home. For those children who have been in school, there will be the chance to discuss the progress they have made plus how well they have coped with new routines.

In the letter sent out earlier today, I shared that the booking for parent consultations will go live on Thursday morning.

Tea and Talk

Following recent parent requests, the session this week is focussed on phonics and is for parents of children in Reception, Year 1 and Year 2. The session will be led by Mrs Pook, the school's Phonics Lead and will be from 12.45 to 1.30pm.

Please contact Miss Lea in the office for a link to join the session.

Best wishes and please take care,
