

Thursday 22nd February 2024

Dear parents/families,

We would like to inform you about our plans for World Book Day, which we are celebrating on Thursday 7th March 2024 to support the charity's mission to change lives through a love of books and reading.

On this date, we would ask that, if possible, your child brings into school a copy of one of their favourite books to share with their classmates.

Following the results of our recent parent survey, our children will have a choice of clothing for this day:

- (1) dress up as a character, or bring an item to represent a character, from one of their favourite books (please, no football kits)
- (2) come to school in their pyjamas or similar appropriate bedtime attire; or
- (3) wear school uniform.

From Monday 26th February, we will keep a World Book Day costume swap box in our reception office area. We would be grateful if you could leave any unwanted/outgrown costumes/props here for other families to enjoy and feel free to take any items which may be of use to your child.

Our Reading Ambassadors are busy planning an exciting range of activities and competitions to promote a love of reading for this day. If you would like to come into school to share a book with your child's class, please consult with your child's class teacher.

We are very much looking forward to celebrating World Book Day, which could not happen without the support of our families, so thank you.

Kind regards,

Mrs Rivolta
