

29th January 2024

Dear Parents and Carers,

We are very excited to share with you that the choir are going to be performing at the Torbay Festival on Friday 1st March at the Palace Theatre, Paignton. As part of the festival, the performance will be an entry into the CLASS 902, JUNIOR CHOIR (UP TO SCHOOL YEAR 6) section. The performance will be adjudicated, and feedback given. The choir also have the chance to win the The Observer Cup.

The children have already been avidly rehearsing their pieces and are very much looking forward to the performance.

The session will be an evening session and will begin at 6.30pm. With this in mind, please can the children arrive at the theatre for 6.00pm. Please can the children also wear their school uniform. Once the children have performed in their section, and the adjudicator has given their feedback, the children will be free to go.

Adults are very welcome to come into the performance room and be a part of the audience. If you would like to see the children perform, the prices are listed below from the festival website:
